

Treatment: your name

Title of Project:

Introductory Sentence or two summarizing content: Include the autobiographical and/or socio/ political info you are starting with. It could be formed like this but doesn't have to be:

This piece explores the nature of _____ and the relationship between _____ and _____.

What is the nature of your character(s)? (describe briefly) What does it represent?

What is the relationship of the character to your set? (describe set briefly)

What will happen over time in this project: Beginning/ middle/ end?

How will lighting enhance the content?

What camera angles will reinforce the content?

How will editing develop the work?

What part will sound play in completing the piece? Will there be any text?

Who is your audience and what do you hope they get from the piece?